

ARKID IS WATCHING YOU

I have received the following communication from one of my correspondents. I regret that there is only a fragment left, due to the intrusion of Prodnose, who devoured a large section of the manuscript before he could be restrained, in an attempt to prevent it's publication.

The sun is back, I understand. It is certainly making its presence felt, if not seen. I blame Piggott. There ought to be a law.

But for myself, I would I wera in Plangeross, in the pleasant valley of the Pits, in the Spring, with the last of the snow still clinging to the shoulder of Riffel. I would drink the white wine of the Sudtiroel on the charming terrace of Hubertushaus, and gaze across the river to where the little track goes through the trees to Verpeil. I would..

PRODNOSE: De you honestly think that an alive, informed readership is interested in this? Anyway, you're just making it up.
I don't beleive these places exist at all!

A lрге balloon grows out of the EDITOR'S head. It is filled with asterisks like this * and exclamation marks like this ! . The EDITOR rises to his feet, flings his typewriter at the buffoon's head, and rushes wildly to the bar, clamouring for gin.

That man is becoming a nuisance.

THE MAN WHO SHOT LIBERTY SHOVELMAN.

The sun was slowly setting in the east, as wild Bill ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ Brangham rode into Deadman's Gulch. He tethered his chestnut I.H. to the hitchin rail outside of Miller's saloon, and strode purposefully through the swing doors. Picking himself up and wiping the dust from his gold-lame levis, he carefully opened the door by turning the door knob.

As he entered the room, the raucous laughter died away. All eyes were on wild Bill, the women's in open admiration, the men's widened with fear.

"I've just ridden four hundred miles and killed eighty two men this afternoon, and that's thirsty work even for a Brangham," he drawled to the barman, "Pull me a gallon of sherry, and don't try no tricks, 'cos wild Bill's quicker than shit of a shovel with a six iron."

"And he ain't so bad with a number four wood," came a sneering voice from behind.

Wild Bill turned slowly to face the speaker, his cheek muscles twitching in anger.

"Well if it isn't Bad Dan Shovelman and his sidekick Black Guns Bury. I'se a bin a lookin' for you fellers for some time. We know it was you two that beat old ma' Johnson to death, to git that packet of Sherbert lemons that she had in her handbag. Your numbers are up fellers, 'cos Ise a takin' youse in."

As he spoke he moved slowly away from the bar, his hands hovering over the colt 245 Buntline specials strapped to his thighs (calves and ankles). The bar had mysteriously cleared as he was speaking, except for the bar tender, who was rolling about on the floor, pissing himself with laughter. They faced each other and the tension increased until you could have cut the air with a knife.

"I must change my socks," muttered Black Guns Bury.

Then they made their play. Big Bill's hands didn't even seem to move. His head did, however, as Shovelman blew it off with his quick draw Gattling gun.

Not So Much An Article Here A Gosh

CAME ACROSS THE FOLLOWING IN A READER'S DIGEST TOTHER DAY, QUITE FUNNY, IN SOME WAYS, SUPPOSE TO GUESS WHICH THE WELL KNOWN PROVERBS ARE.....

A)

A MASS OF CONCENTRATED BARTLEY MATERIAL PERENNIALY
ROTATING ON ITS AXIS WILL NOT ACCUMULATE A BRYOPHYTIC
VEGETATION ACCRETION. (THAT IS THE EASY ONE)

B)

IT CAN BE NO OTHER THAN A MAELFICONTY HORIZONTALLY PROPELLED CURRENT OF GASEOUS MATTER WHOSE POTENTIOUS ADVENT IS NOT THE HANNIBLER OF A WOBITION OF BENEFICENCE. (PROVERB HAS ON ABOUT NOT A PARTS!!!)

C)

ONE SHOULD HYPERASTHENTICALLY EXERCISE MACROSCOPY UPON

WHILE THINKING THE OTHER DAY, I WAS WONDERING WHAT WOULD

Well it seems like the geophysicists have done it yet again and managed to conjure up the sun on the appointed day to shine down upon us for another glorious summer we hope. Yes its definitely all downhill now with the jolly season just around the corner. Still as Prodnose once said dont count your chickens before you come to them. Tlking about flares whcih we werent but still the sun sun seems to have been doing its nut to some extent just lately with somewhat adverse effects on the communications situation nevertheless matters are exacerbated by our proximity to the zone of aurororal awtivity and lack of successful wakeruppers. Its an ill wind though and business is good for the scientists who wallow in this sort of thing. By the way did you know that a riometer is an instrument used by taxis in Brasil. Prodnose do you call that a joke? Me a joke you must be joking. unfortunately we seem to be running out of time and paper so I will just fill up the rest of this page with the odd sketch or two. Very odd.
